NOTE: losalamosmentalhealth.org is not a crisis resource.

If you are feeling suicidal, thinking about hurting yourself, or are concerned that someone you know may be in danger of hurting himself or herself, call the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline at 1-800-273-TALK (1-800-273-8255). It is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week and is staffed by certified crisis response professionals.

You can find help in locating a mental health professional by consulting with your health care provider, Employee Assistance Program, the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline (1-800-273-TALK), or the National Mental Health Information Center (<http://www.mentalhealth.samhsa.gov/databases/>).

United Way of Northern New Mexico and Self Help, Inc. have formed a partnership to assist the community of Los Alamos in accessing mental health care. The losalamosmentalhealth.org website includes information for individuals who struggle with mental health issues, their families, co-workers, friends, clergy, and teachers and gives community members a place to turn to for current information. and does not provide any medical, psychological, diagnostic or treatment services. For accurate diagnosis of suicidality, depression and alcohol problems or other mental illnesses, participants need to call and/or be seen by qualified healthcare professionals. We do not assume any legal obligation to follow up with individual users.

losalamosmentalhealth.org, its staff and agents, including

United Way of Northern New Mexico and Self Help, Inc shall not be liable for claims or damages and expressly disclaims any and all liability of any nature for any action, or non-action, taken as a result of the information generated by this website or any of the programs of losalamosmentalhealth.org used by the customers, callers, clients or online users.

Results from the any of the tools provided are not diagnostic, but merely indicate the presence, or lack thereof, of symptoms that are consistent, or inconsistent with depression and/or suicidality. Negative responses to the questionnaires do not rule out suicidality and/or depression, and positive responses do not conclusively establish suicidality and/or depression. A diagnostic evaluation by a healthcare professional is always necessary to determine whether or not there is the presence/absence of depression/suicidality.

Should a user of losalamosmentalhealth.org receive information that in any way might indicate a serious or potentially life-threatening problem for themselves or someone else, we urge the individual to call 1-800-273-TALK, contact a mental health services professional, visit the nearest emergency room or call 911. Please note that in some cases the losalamosmentalhealth.org webpage may not be displayed on your computer for technical reasons, and losalamosmentalhealth.org and its developers do not assume any legal obligation to ensure that the webpage is displayed. Even if the webpage is not displayed, any online user who believes that he or someone else may have a serious or potentially life-threatening problem is encouraged to visit the nearest emergency room or call 911.
